WHAT TO DO NOW & WHERE TO GO NEXT

Ahhhh in Idaho

AFTER A DAY ON THE SLOPES, INDULGE IN BLISSFUL RELAXATION AT THE COVE—SHORE LODGE'S AWARD-WINNING SPA.

McCall, Idaho, is one of North America's ultimate year-round playgrounds. There is no end to the high-octane sports adventure in this extraordinary spot. Just two hours outside of Boise, nestled in the region's prized Salmon River Mountains, MCCALL'S SHORE LODGE is the destination for experienced adventurers and newbies alike. After all the action, those in the know beeline right for the award-winning and nature-based spa, THE COVE. This is a full-service dreamland offering six treatment rooms, indoor/outdoor saltwater immersions pools, year-round swimming pool, and hot tubs. Known as the Mountain West's fountain of youth, The Cove offers outdoor enthusiasts and wellness seekers many treatments to soothe both body and soul.

BORAH PEAK IS THE ULTIMATE ALL-DAY "ADVENTURE IN LUXURY" EXPERIENCE AT THE COVE

Borah Peak includes:

Skipping Stones Massage

Clearwater Scrub

Forest Flora Facial

Lunch served by the Immersion Pools

McCall Spa Manicure and Pedicure

(6 Hours+) $500

Nature-based massages, body treatments, and facials utilizing Eminence Organics skincare products restore and rejuvenate. Additional amenities at The Cove include a 24-hour fitness studio complete with the latest cardiovascular and strength training equipment, as well as manicure, pedicure, and waxing services offered at The Cove Salon. No matter what experience you treat yourself to, be sure to bring your bathing suit and retreat to the indoor pool where you can evade the elements and enjoy the serenity. Or venture to the outdoor pool where you are surrounded by nature and all its glory. These saltwater immersion pools may be McCall's best-kept secrets, so keep them hush-hush.
