

St. Luke's Irvine receives 2018 President's Award

St. Luke's McCall Orthopedic Surgeon Dr. Greg Irvine was recognized at the recent President's Award dinner and ceremony.

The nomination letter submitted by Dr. Dave Hall of St. Luke's McCall described Irvine as "a transforming orthopedic care in the region through his dedication to his patients and positive outcomes."

Greg Irvine

Irvine's leadership skills have built a cohesive surgical team passionate about zero errors, no infections and a just culture. Hall's nomination said, "Plus everyone immensely enjoys working with him." Hall said.

Irvine presented the case for and recruited the hospital's first anesthesiologist.

He also conducts monthly musculoskeletal trainings for medical staff, is the medical director for Payette Lake Ski patrol and has participated in nationally advisory committees to improve federal programs, the nomination said.

Irvine started starting working for St. Luke's in 2011 and began offering total joint replacements in 2012. He performed nearly 400 surgeries in 2017.

DEATHS

Karen R. Wisdom

Karen R. Wisdom, 64, of Boise, died on Thursday, July 5, 2018 at a local hospital. Arrangements are in the care of Cloverdale Funeral Home.

Judith May Chan

On Monday, July 2, 2018, Judith May Chan passed away suddenly at age 77 due to injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

Judi was born on December 6, 1940 in Arvan, California. She had lived in New Meadows, Idaho for the past seven years.

On the day of her death, she was moving, with her husband, back to Napa, California to begin a new chapter there.

Judi will be lovingly remembered by her husband of 37 years, Greg; and her daughters, Deborah Miller

Photo courtesy Shore Lodge

Photo shows the wine collection at The Narrows Steakhouse at Shore Lodge, which received a "Best of Award of Excellence" as part of Wine Spectator's 2018 Restaurant Awards.

Shore Lodge earns award from Wine Spectator

The Narrows Steakhouse located at Shore Lodge in McCall has received a "Best of Award of Excellence" designation for its wine program from Wine Spectator's recently announced 2018 Restaurant Awards.

The accolade has only been given to two wine programs in Idaho and 1,215 restaurants worldwide.

The Restaurant Awards cover 3,759 winners in three categories across the globe. The "Best of Award of Excellence" recipients selected are those who offer more extensive selections with significant vintage depth and excellent breadth across multiple regions. The award is also given to restaurants who offer significant depth of top wine producers, along with superior presentation.

"Receiving such a prestigious award for a program that we have placed much time and effort in is both rewarding and outstanding," said Dan Scott, president and general manager of Shore Lodge and Whitetail Club. "I applaud our resident sommelier, Taylor Nissen, and the restaurant team for their dedication to excellence and to delivering the ability to enjoy a perfect sip with every bite," Scott said.

A memorial fund at Idaho First Bank has been set up to help with the unexpected expenses of this tragedy.

Judith Gale Clendenon

Judith Gale Clendenon of Boise passed away on July 2, 2018 after years of bravely battling a terminal illness. She was 54 years old.

She was married to Daren Clendenon for 38 wonderful years. That love blessed them with children, Adam Clendenon, Ben and Sarah Clendenon, Cadee Clendenon, David and Chelsea Clendenon. The light of her life were her six grandchildren, Aiden, Grace, Corbin, Claire, Cash and Jackson.

Judi was born on July 25, 1963 in Allegan, Michigan to Bonnie and Stan Lysiak. Welcomed by four older siblings Wanda, James, Louise and Andrew, she would later

This year marks the first time Shore Lodge has received the "Best of Award of Excellence" designation for its wine program following seven consecutive years as an "Award of Excellence" winner.

The steakhouse's has 5,000 bottles of wine with over 450 labels, and the award lists its California, Washington and French varieties as strengths.

The Narrows Steakhouse seats 46 people, has a secluded wine room that seats up to 16 guests, and offers and a mountain-modern wine cellar detailed with reclaimed wood and glass walls.

meet Jennifer, Eric and Toby.

In 1979 the family moved to Idaho where she met Daren at the McCall SDA church and they married at 16 years old. They settled in McCall to raise their four children.

In 1987, when her youngest was only 1, she graduated from Boise State University. She attained her nursing degree as a valdicatorian of her class.

All her young life she said she wanted to be a nurse. She cared for any injured child or animal she found. Throughout her training she worked in emergency rooms and delivered babies but found her true calling caring for the elderly.

She committed about 20 years to the nursing home in McCall where her patients were friends and caring for them became her passion. Her illness eventually forced her into early retirement, but she still spoke of her patients everyday.

They moved to Boise to be closer to their children, allowing her 16 wonderful years witnessing her children marry and watching her grandchildren grow.

She succeeded in teaching the compassion, love and gentle spirit it takes to be good parents and respected adults. Her children remember her as a driven, brilliant woman and a patient mother who encouraged them to pursue their goal.

A funeral is scheduled for July 22, 2018, at 2 p.m. at McCall Seventh-day Adventist Church, with a reception to follow. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Judi's life.

BIRTHS

Cecelia Adelline Bates

Born July 5, 2018, at St. Luke's McCall, to Chris and Allison Bates of McCall. A girl, 8 pounds, 1 ounce and 20.5 inches long.

Immediate Family: Brothers, Jackson Bates (10) and Lane Bates (2).

Grandparents: Maternal, Jackie Inscore of Mansfield, Ohio, and Everette Arter of Ohio, Farnal, Arva, and Judy Bates of Kamsing, Kan.

THANKS

Thanks to sponsors of Skate Down-Idaho Bowl Contest

To the Editor: The Little Ski Hill hosted the 4rd Annual McCall Skate Down-Idaho Bowl Contest at Harshman Skatepark on Saturday, July 7. The competition hosted competitors in both the skateboarding and scooting disciplines. A total of 23 competitors completed for cash and prizes donated from local shops. Competitors were judged on a combined score of 30 second runs.

The event was sponsored by Board Room McCall, Defrost Construction, Lake Fork Builders, Salmon River Brewery, McCall Sports Exchange. Also by Forest Property Management, Disaster Response of McCall, Gravity Sports, First American Title, Midas Gold, Mountain Home Hardware, Grillo, Star News, HomeTown Sports, Lakeshore Disposal, McCall Weddings, McCall Party

Rentals, City of McCall and Franz Witt Nursery.

The second installment of the Skate Down will be held Saturday, Sept. 1.

Jen Dummar
Payette Lakes Ski Club

Crandall family thanks those who responded to accident

To the Editor: The Crandall family would like to thank the McCall Police Department, Idaho State Police and all other first responders who were at the scene of the tragic accident on June 24 in which Cherie Crandall lost her life.

We appreciate their efforts and regret the damage to property caused by the accident, but are also grateful that no one else was injured. Thank you again from the bottom of our hearts.

Katie Crandall
McCall

Thanks to supporters of Grass Doubles Volleyball Tournament

To the Editor: Thank you to all those who played in the Grass Doubles Volleyball Tournament fundraiser last Saturday! It was a huge success.

Thanks to The Star-News for donating to the event and to Growler's for donating pizza. Also a big thanks to all the coaches and McCall High School athlete alumni who came out to play with the current McCall and Cascade high school athletes.

We had plenty of sun and lots of volleyball by the end of the day!
Tricia Warren
McCall

Need to give a gift to someone who has too much stuff?

A Star-News subscription is a thoughtful choice.

Print and online options available. Order today at www.mccallstarnews.com or call 208-634-2123

Little Ski Hill's APPLIANCES
"Boise Prices in McCall"

Whitford GE Hobart Medco