While we love salty sea breezes and crashing waves, there's something so alluring about a lakeside vacation. Log cabin-esque lodgings with crackling hearths and private porches are tailor-made to inspire romance. Bonfires and lawn games exude nostalgic charm. Postcard-worthy views plus outdoor recreation and pampering amenities seal the deal.

Whether you want to get back to nature or simply relax, these lakeside properties are perfect for your next getaway.

Shore Lodge | McCall, Idaho

Two hours north of Boise in the mountain town of McCall lies Shore Lodge, a 77-key idyl facing the glacier-fed Payette Lake. Of course, the bucolic setting is a major draw. But that's just the beginning. For adrenaline junkies, there's cliff jumping and water trampolining. Foodies can feast on Snake River Farms wagyu from Eastern Idaho at The Narrows Steakhouse, which also boasts a 2,000-bottle wine cellar. Need to unwind? Burgdorf Hot Springs is nearby.
