Upon being seated in our restaurants, our guests will receive clean, one-time use menus that will be disposed of immediately after use.

Our tables will be set with individually sealed silverware.

There is a one-way traffic pattern in the restaurants to avoid close contact by service staff.

Our servers will have masks and sanitized pens for each guest interaction.

All beverages will have individually wrapped paper straws.

The Bar will adhere to strict gathering crowd maximums, and we have added a host at the front to monitor access and seating.
