Shore Lodge | McCall, Idaho

Located just 2.5 hours outside of Boise, McCall Idaho is a beautiful four-season lake and ski town situated on the southern shore of Payette Lake near the center of the Payette National Forest, the second largest area of protected wilderness in the continental United States. The premier 77-room historic resort offers understated luxury for nature and adventure lovers. As the leaves start to change, hiking in one of McCall's 500 miles of public trails is a must. For thrill seekers, Fall is the best time to take on backcountry trails on an ATV. After a day in nature, the cooling temperatures of fall are the perfect time to enjoy the natural hot springs. Luckily, McCall is a short drive from some of the country's most incredible naturally occurring hot springs.
